Audit Requirements

Under the SA Land Agents Act 1994, an agent who maintains a trust account must have the accounts and records audited annually.

The audit process is seen as being extremely important, and an agent who fails to have an audit is guilty of an offence under the regulations with potential penalties of up to $20,000 and cancellation of registration.

Galpins take the stress out of the audit process by clearly communicating our audit requirements in advance, including what documentation and other evidence we need to see, and working with you to achieve lodgement deadlines.

Who Can Perform The Audit?

The Auditor must be a Registered Company Auditor. Galpins has 3 Registered Company Auditors, all with experience in the audit of trust accounts.

Why Choose Galpins?

Experience

Galpins has developed expertise in trust account auditing from over 25 years of experience in providing trust account audit services to conveyancers, real estate agents, lawyers and accountants.

Quality & Efficiency

We utilise the very latest audit technology, specialised audit programs and highly trained staff to guarantee a high quality, efficient audit process, with minimal disruption to your business, fast turnaround times and highly competitive pricing.

Value Adding

At Galpins, we provide more than just an audit report - we share our knowledge and experience with you to help you better meet your statutory obligations and record keeping requirements.
